

In the name of God Amen the Twelfth day of May the first of June 1541 William Texell Merchant of London being in perfect mind and memory do make and ordaine my last Will and Testament in manner and forme following that is to say first and principally I give and bequeath my Soule unto the Allmightie God with whome I am and desire to be and I hope will satisfie me and forgive me all my sinnes from my youth to this present day and hereafter to my loved and remembred wife Anne Texell In all my goods and chattels whatsoever and as believeth unto me make my said wife Anne Texell my full and sole executrix to dispose at her Will and pleasure and of my house hold goods as she shall thinke good at her discretion I charge all wayes that it is the same Anne Texell doe live till to morrow with shalbe the 21st of this present Month that then if I shall thinke good to alter this my will to any intent not notwithstanding unto me that that will then shall stand in force but if it shall please God to take me to his mercy in the mean time that my will shall stand and be in force This will made of William Texell Witnessed me Robert Alderthell And is the mark of William Texell

Probatum fuit huius Testamenti nono die Junij 1541 in die Jura ven huius Johanne de Warraco legum Doctor et iur Commissarius fuit pro parte Anne Texell Quod et ex parte eius de bene et salvo satis est per hunc perit

William In the name of God Amen William Texell the first of June the first of June 1541 the County of Middlesex in the City of London shalbe be given to Allmightie God do make and ordaine my last Will and Testament in manner and forme hereafter ensuing vizt I bequeath my Soule to the hand of Allmightie God hoping to be saved by the