SPRING 1991 DOR NEWSLETTER

At last, DOR can offer the "Tyrell Knot" logo jewelry and the two sizes available are shown above. The larger pin on the left has a bar pin safety catch, while the smaller lapel pin/tie tac has a straight nail with clutch. Complete details and order form are on the last page of this newsletter. Please respond with your order as soon as possible so that it can be included in the initial quantity order. Allow a few weeks for delivery. I'm sure you'll be pleased with this attractive symbol of your heritage.

For you DOR "birders" and nature lovers, DOR member and wildlife photographer, Wardene Roush Weisser, has alerted us to the beautiful book Hummingbirds, Their Life and Behavior, by Robert A. Tyrrell and Esther Quesada Tyrrell, published by Crown Publishers Inc., 225 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10003. Wardene enthuses, "...the book is lavishly illustrated with excellent full-color photographs of hummingbirds, all done by Robert Tyrrell. The text is written by Esther and is very accurate." Later word from Wardene advises that there is a new book Hummingbirds of the Caribbean by Robert and Esther Tyrrell also published by Crown. DOR has written to these Tyrrell authors in care of Crown Publishing in order to establish "ancestor" contact. Their first book is dedicated to their parents, and for Robert they are Ronald A. and Stella E. Tyrrell.

DOR received more information on the wagon train story that appeared in the previous newsletter query section for Donna Northuis. Donna heard from Charles Lee Terrill<sup>9</sup> who sent her a copy of a paper he wrote in country school in about 1927 about this incident. He speculated that "evidently I had heard the story from Dad (Jerome<sup>8</sup>) or Uncle (Charles Leigh<sup>8</sup>)." DOR member Mary Biggs also wrote to confirm that she had heard the same story, and that her grandmother, Eleanor Elizabeth<sup>9</sup> Grim told her that her Uncle was on this train of one hundred men and one woman. "One of the men wouldn't leave his wife at home as she was ill and he thought she would be dead before he returned. She was well and fine when they reached California. This Uncle found gold but either lost it gambling or it was stolen on the ship on his way home. Her version was the man saw an old Indian woman seated on a log or stump under a tree and he shot and killed her. That night the wagon train was surrounded by the Indian tribe and they demanded the person who shot the woman be turned over to them or they would kill everyone on the train. They produced the young man and the Indians scalped him and heaped red hot coals on his head. His father and brothers were forced to watch." This different version seems to be the same wagon train story.

A big thanks to everyone who contributed information and stories. Space doesn't allow inclusion of all of them, but look for your contribution in future issues. NTT

"Know all men by these presents that we Sarah Terrill and Timothy Terrill both of Woodbury in ye County of Fairfield in N: England; being by ye Court of Probates in Woodbury appointed guardians to Abigail ye daughter of Mr. Roger Terrill late of Woodbury deceased, and having put into our hand and possession something considerable of ye estate of ye sd. Roger Terrill by his last Will and testament, and other good considerations, do hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves our heirs Executors and administrators to pay or cause to be paid well and truly, unto John Sherman Esqr. Judge of sd. Probate in Woodbury and his successors & ye select men of ye Town of Woodbury aforesd ye full sum of one Hundd and fifty pounds currant money of N: England upon demand, and to be recovered as well as any just debt whatsoever.

"The condition of sd. obligation is such that if we Sarah Terrill and Timothy Terrill, truly discharge ye trust reposed in us, & jointly or either of us severally do and shall from time to time and at all time, duly take care of and provide for and subsist ye said Abigail ye daughter of sd. Note: In 1722 Woodbury was in Fairfield County as Litchfield was not created a County until 1751 from Hartford and Fairfield Counties. The Sarah mentioned is probably not a sister as Sarah<sup>3</sup>m. Dr. Jonathan Atwood in 1701. An explanation for this Sarah is that she is the widow of Roger<sup>2</sup>, his second wife and mother of twins Timothy<sup>3</sup> and Martha<sup>3</sup>, and therefore not referred to as the mother of Abigail<sup>3</sup>. Some sources say that Roger<sup>2</sup> m. 1) Sarah Riden and she was the mother of Abigail<sup>3</sup>, Sarah, Stephen Roger and Ezra who was b. 1693; and m. 2) Sarah Scott mother of twins Timothy<sup>3</sup> and Martha b. 1697. However, it is reported that the Vital Records of New Haven CT show that Roger Terrill m. Sarah Scott 13 Apr 1678, which would negate the two Sarah theory. Does the membership have other proof/theories about Roger<sup>2</sup> and his wife or wives?

JEHIEL<sup>5</sup> TERRILL

Our thanks to DOR members Paul and Gloria Terrill for this tidbit on JEHIEL<sup>5</sup> who is on the chart in this issue and was also featured in the Fall 1990 newsletter. This is from the HISTORY OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, Warner, Beers & Co., Chicago, 1885, pages 676 and 677:

"Jehiel Terrell came to the township in 1797, or earlier. He hailed from New Jersey, and settled in the southwest portion of Tract 98, about three and a half miles north of Venango. Mr. Terrell was one of the first teachers in Venango Township, beginning as early as 1810. His schoolroom was of the primitive type, a round log-cabin, with fire-place extending along one end and with chimney constructed of clay and sticks, the furniture being of the rudest workmanship. Mr. Terrell, after a residence of some years, returned to New Jersey.

"The earliest settlers of Venango were William Bole, Henry Bole, Thomas Coulter, Thomas Logue, Philip Straw, Daniel and Christopher Siverling and Jehiel Terrell, all of whom settled here in 1797....Thomas Coulter, who was born in Philadelphia in 1765, settled about a mile northwest from Venango Borough in 1796, and remained there till his death many years later. His son Robert was born there in March, 1797 probably the first birth of a white child in the township."

This sad incident was reported in The Empire, Concordia Kansas in the Friday, 4 January 1878 edition:

"BLOOD!"

"Shooting Affray New Year's Evening."

"Last Tuesday evening, according to the best information we can obtain, a party of neighbors gathered at the house of Leander Terroll, on Buffalo creek, for a New Year's dance and supper. All went merry and well until about ten o'clock. There were several young men present, some of whom were apparently in liquor, and who seemed disposed to make trouble. We understand that a young man named Burgett was one of these, who without provocation, drew a revolver, and made threatening movements therewith. This call for interference and several of the party closed with him and endeavored to take the weapon away from him. In the melee he succeeded in discharging it, shooting Dick Terrell through the body.

"On the next day Burget was arrested by Sheriff Wilson and lodged in jail, to await the issue of the shot in the wounded man."
