SUMMER 1992 DOR NEWSLETTER

"Happy New Year"

Pencil

ca 1895

John Lyman Turrel, 1839-1913, was born in Perry, NY, and educated at Perry Academy, Alexander (NY) Academy, Schuyler Academy (Republic, OH), and the University of Michigan Law School. He was an engraver and worked until his early seventies for the Matthews-Northrup Co. of Buffalo, commuting daily from his home in Attica.

This sketch is shared by DOR member #101, John D. Turrel. The original is 20" by 16" and hangs in his front hall in Mount Vernon, IL.

DOR'S MOVED!! It's been a busy three plus months since the last newsletter as we moved our home and business to southern Illinois... and of course this means that DOR moved right along with us. So, please make a note of our new address for all correspondence, dues, etc.,... Nancy Tyrrel Theodore, DOR Corresponding Society, PO Box 589, Hudson, IL 61748-0589. And for those of you with a FAX, our new FAX number: 309 726-1411. Let's hear from you!!

TYRRELLS AND THE WILD, WILD, WEST!!

Like all family trees, ours has its share of what we fondly refer to as "colorful characters" with the grit to forge a life out of the frontier. In the mid-1800's, after the Civil War, Kansas was still a part of the western frontier and spawned its share of hardbitten pioneers including our own Lewis Leander⁸ (called Leander), his brother Eben (Ebin) Alvin⁸ and their father Marshall¹⁷ (Philander Laurel⁶, Ichabod⁵, Oliver⁴, Josiah³, John², Roger¹).

Leander and Eben were born to Marshall L. and Polly Judson in Monroe County, IA about 1844 and 1850 respectively. Leander m. 1) Lydia Stone on 24 Sept 1868, they were divorced and he m. 2) Thana Ann Gunters Rogers on 7 Jan 1901. Eben m. Nancy Jane Lockard on 1 Oct 1871 at Concordia, Cloud county, KS.

Leander served in the 36th Iowa Inf. during the Civil War from Feb 1864 to August 1865 during which time he was taken prisoner at Marks Mill in April 1864 and paroled at Red River Landing, LA on 26 Feb 1865. Leander applied for a pension due to "disease of the lungs" and other physical complaints connected with his service. It was through these pension records and the pension records for his mother's younger brother, William Judson, that DOR member Chuck Tyrrell uncovered our merry band.....

The 1870 U.S. census shows Leander in Cloud County, KS, Sibley Twp.; and on the 1880 census in Jamestown, KS, Grant Twp. While in Cloud county Leander, Eben and Marshall gave depositions in support of the pension claim of their uncle and brother-in-law, William Judson. According to Leander's deposition Judson "was sick with Army Disease thought he would never see a well day again. I have new (sic) him off and on up to this time (October 1874) he has never been well since never able to do a days work." Eben's deposition stated that Judson had the Army disease and for three years was "never able to do any work." Martial (Marshall) echoed these sentiments in his deposition and added that Judson.."was very feeble not able to walk any distance he was bed sick more or less for six or seven months under a doctor and I heard the doctor say he got the disease in the army and thought he would never be a sound man again." So sayeth they all.

The scene shifts, you can almost hear the release of steam as the Special Agent sent to investigate Judson's pension claim steps from the train at, according to his report, "Clay Center, the nearest Rail Road point" where he hired a livery to take him into Cloud and Mitchell counties...three days travel. His report then gets more personal....

"The claimant Judson, and his Kansas witnesses, are all nomads--- (underline is the Agent's) Texas cattle herders---Border Roughs'---of that extremely rough character incident to the extreme borders of the West. I found their Headquarters were near Concordia, in the Republican Valley. On tracking them, I found Judson was out in the headwaters of the Solomon river, in charge of a cattle herd. Two of the Tyrrells were with him, some hundred miles or more further in the interior. The other Tyrrell had just been liberated from jail, and was somewhere 'in the brush'."

The Special Agent then recommended that the pension request for Judson be denied. Clearly he didn't think a cattle herder incapacitated and wasn't impressed with our merry band....

However like many of us, Judson mellowed with time. In 1889 when another pension inquiry was made of Judson who was then living near Moscow, Idaho, he was described thus: "His financial credit and honor are rated good, and his reputation in general is very fair. But he is said to be a somewhat intemperate man, of the spreeing and noisy kind. A few months ago he was arrested and fined for a mounted promenade of the sidewalks a la Monsieur Cowboy." Oh well, no one is perfect!

While Leander remained temporarily in Cloud county, Sibley twp., William Judson, Marshall and Eben Tyrrell show up on the Laramie City, Wyoming census of June 1880 having left Concordia about the spring of 1880, crossing the plains by covered wagon. Their final destination was the new western frontier in the Moscow, Idaho area. According to a sworn statement made by Leander for his pension claim the 30th of June 1915, Eben died about 1880 at Viola, Latah county, Idaho two months after their arrival there. Eben would have been a still young man of about 30 years of age. It was a hard life.

Eben's widow, Nancy, married George W. Poe at Moscow on 28 August 1881. Leander died near Moscow, Idaho 16 April 1935 at age 91. Marshall died 19 Dec 1902 and is buried along with his wife, Polly, in Whelan Cemetery, Whitman county, Washington.

Thanks also to Chuck for the great photograph below of Leander Lewis8 Tyrrell, a pioneering ancestor with true grit!

LEANDER8 TYRRELL

Everyone searching their family roots hopes for documented proof of relationships. Land records and deeds can be an excellent source for such proof. The following taken from Milford, CT deeds proves the relationship of Josiah³ and Samuel³ to John² and Abigail Terrill.

In early 1720 when Samuel was 42 and his younger brother, Josiah was 26, an arrangement was arrived at whereby land was deeded by Samuel to Josiah in exchange for Josiah's promise to care for the aging John and Abigail. Samuel's deed states:

"To all Christian people to whom these presents shall come greeting. Know ye that I, Samuel Terrill of Milford in ye County of New Haven and Colony of Connecticut in New England, for and in consideration of that whereas my Honoured Father & Mother, John & Abigail Terrill of Milford aforesaid are by ye goodness of God allowed to live to old age: for which favor I pray God make me thankful: and my Father by reason of age and other infirmities not being able to provide for his own support or ye support of my Mother; and I accounting my as in duty bound according to my ability to relieve them in [their] old age do for and in consideration of a good security given me from my brother, Josiah Terrill of Milford aforesaid, that he ye said Josiah Terrill will from time to time take ye whole & sole care of our Father & Mother aforesaid during ye time [of] natural life so as that they may be Honourably maintained & supported in their old age which is to my full satisfaction and contentment."

This deed then goes on to describe the land transferred to Josiah with the usual legal jargon guaranteeing to Josiah and his heirs full legal right to the land. It is signed by Samuel Terrill on 30 March 1720 and witnessed by George Clarke and Timothy Smith, notarized on the 31st of March by Joseph Treat, Justice of the Peace and recorded 1 April 1720 by John Fowler, Register.

A second deed was then executed by Josiah which deeded the same land back to Samuel with the following stipulations:

"Nevertheless if I ye said Josiah Terrill do from ye day of this date hereof according to ye aforesaid consideration provide for & honourably maintain our Father & Mother, John & Abigail Terrill, so as that my brother Samuel Terrill nor his heirs executors and administrators be no ways charged with or forced by law or other ways through my default to maintain in whole or in part our Father and Mother aforesaid; then this obligation or deed of mortgage to be void & of no effect, otherwise to stand & remain in full force and virtue for ever:"

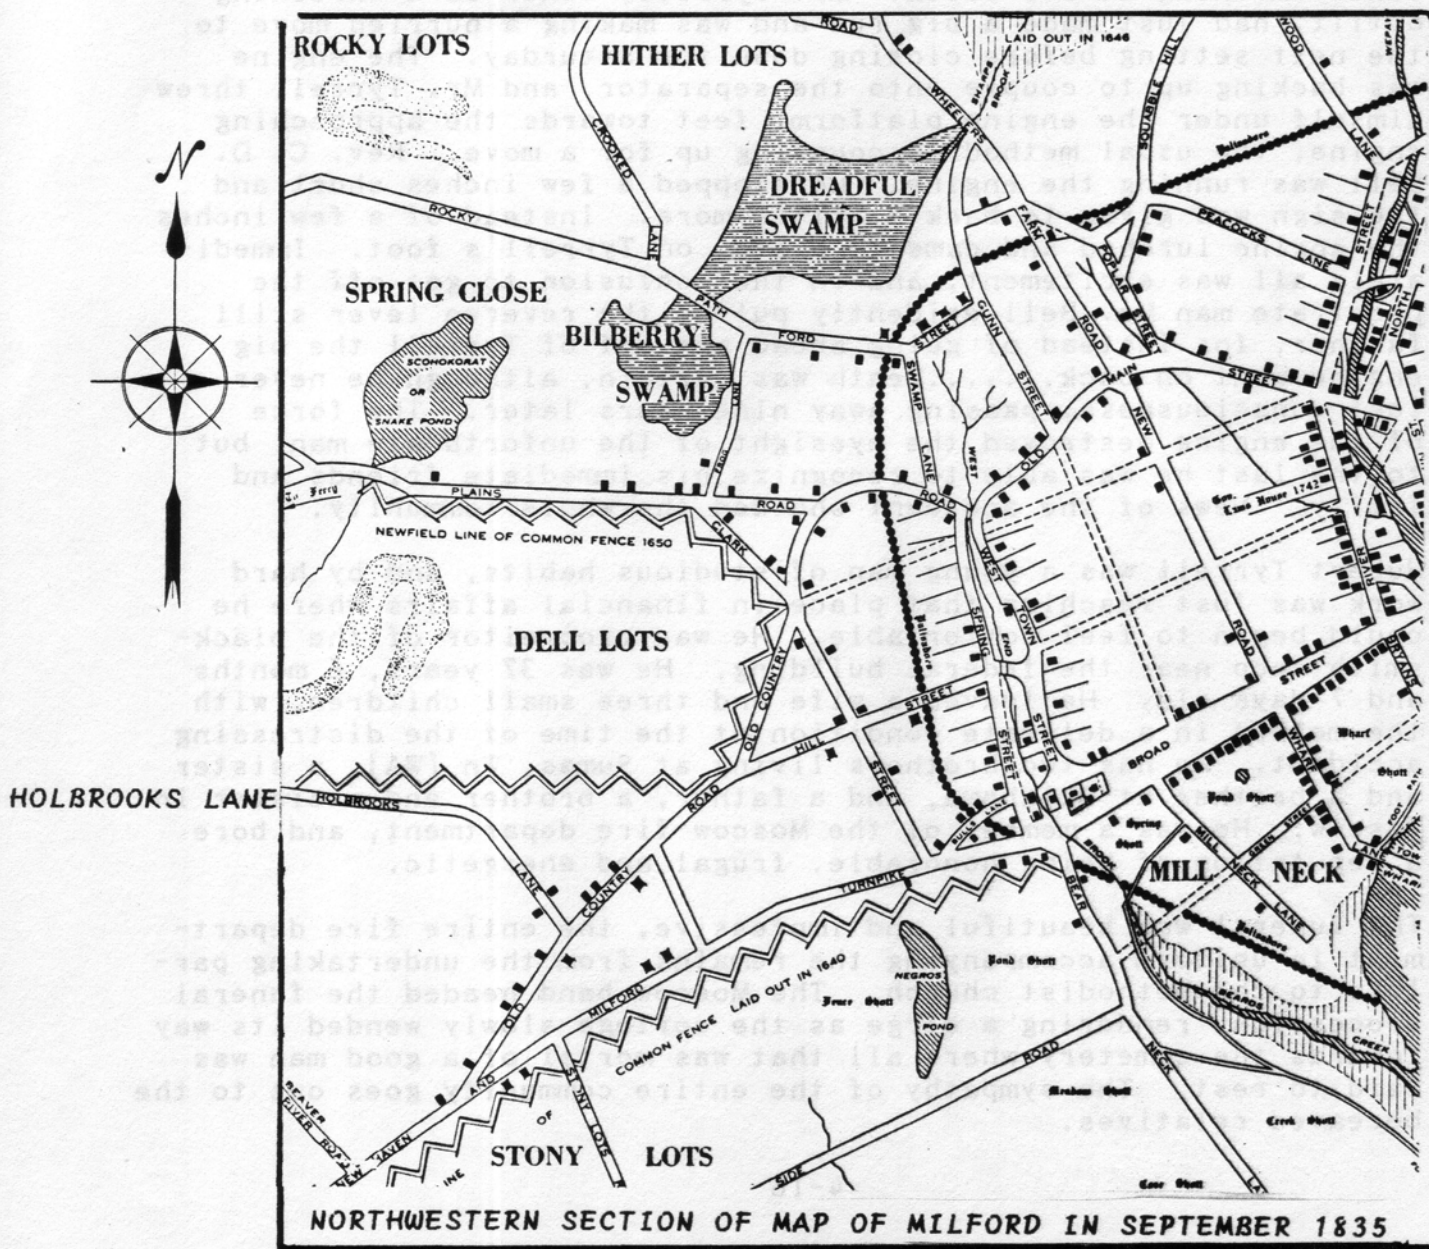

Josiah signed this document on 31 March 1720 with the same witnesses and notary; it was also recorded on 1 April 1720. This second deed was negotiated as a guarantee of performance by Josiah, such deed being void if he cared for their parents as agreed.

The description of the land to be transferred was as follows:

Josiah's deed: "five acres of land more or less...two parcels of land situate within ye bounds of Milford aforesaid one parcell lying in ye West field by ye lea at a place commonly known by ye name of Northrups Rock Lott which parcells of land contains three acres and a half be it more or less bounded by highways Eastward & Southward, and ye land of Sergt Jon Camp Westward, and by ye land of Jon Smith Derby & ye land of Samuel Terrill Northward the other parcell of land lying at ye Beaver Pond a place so called which parcell of land contains three acres more or less or all my land be it more or less in said place bounded East by a high way commonly called Hollbrooks Lane Northward by ye common and by ye land of George Clarke & Westward by ye land of Josiah Tibbals Southward by ye Country Road..."

It is touching to read the gentle and loving sentiment Samuel holds for his parents, and Josiah's concern with fulfilling to Samuel's satisfaction the full measure of his responsibility.

Thus it is that we have proof of the relationships of John², Abigail, Samuel³ and Josiah³. ntt

LAUREL HUBERT TYRRELL

An article on the death of Laurel Hubert Tyrrell is shared by DOR member Ruby Tyrrell Clements with the following remarks: "Just a few weeks ago while going through my long deceased family papers, I found the enclosed copy of my dad's obituary. I was born 2 1/2 mos. after my father's death Aug 7, 1910. I guess [the circumstances of his death were kept from me] because they didn't want me to feel the hurt of such a tragedy. I always wondered, as I became older, why there wasn't [an obituary]. I guess it just took 81 yrs. for me to find it. The mortuary was 4 blocks down the street from the Methodist Church. The Church still stands today like a landmark of Moscow [Idaho]."

Laurel Hubert⁹ descends Alfred⁸, Laurel Hubert⁷, Philander Laurel⁶, Ichabod⁵, Oliver⁴, Josiah³, John², Roger¹. Following is the obituary:

HUBERT TYRRELL KILLED

One of the most distressing accidents that has occurred in this community for years, resulted in the death of Hubert Tyrrell Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. Mr. Tyrrell, owner of a threshing outfit, had just made a big run and was making a hurried move to the next setting before closing down for Saturday. The engine was backing up to couple onto the separator, and Mr. Tyrrell threw himself under the engine platform, feet towards the approaching engine, the usual method in coupling up for a move. Rev. C. D. Bell was running the engine. He stopped a few inches short and the sign was given to back a little more. Instead of a few inches the engine lurched and came to a stop on Tyrrell's foot. Immediately all was excitement, and in the confusion to get off the prostrate man Mr. Bell evidently pulled the reverse lever still farther, for instead of going ahead and off of Tyrrell the big engine went on back.....Death was certain, although he never lost consciousness, passing away nine hours later. The force of the engine destroyed the eyesight of the unfortunate man, but to the last he was able to recognize his immediate friends and family. News of the accident shocked the whole community.

Hubert Tyrrell was a young man of studious habits, and by hard work was just reaching that place in financial affairs where he could begin to feel comfortable. He was proprietor of the blacksmith shop near the federal building. He was 37 years, 6 months and 7 days old. He leaves a wife and three small children, with the mother in a delicate condition at the time of the distressing accident. He has two brothers living at Sumas, Wn [WA], a sister and a brother at Oklahoma, and a father, a brother and a sister in Moscow. He was a member of the Moscow fire department, and bore a reputation of being honorable, frugal and energetic.

The funeral was beautiful and impressive, the entire fire department in uniform accompanying the remains from the undertaking parlors to the Methodist church. The Moscow band headed the funeral procession, rendering a dirge as the cortege slowly wended its way towards the cemetery where all that was mortal of a good man was laid to rest. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved relatives.

TYRELL/TERRILL STANDARD

The cross of St. George; Crest: on a wreath argent and azure a boar's head erect argent and issuing from the mouth a peacock tail. Sprinkled with the Tyrell knot or badge. The motto used with this Tyrell standard is "Tout pour de mieulux," or "All for the best."

It's a bird! It's a plane!.....no it's the TERRILL DAM FLY!!!

We doff our fishing caps to DOR member Roger Porter Terrill for luring us into finding out more about this exotically named fishing fly!

Casting about for more information brought us to the Fish and Game Warden for Coos County, NH, Carl Carlson. Carl kindly took the bait and passed on the following:

"The name, TERRILL DAM FLY, comes from the dam at West Branch Pond on Indian Stream, eighteen miles NW of the village of Pittsburg, NH; and was named for the Conservation Officer (Game Warden) that I replaced when he retired. Perly John Terrill was a native son of Pittsburg, and died at age 81. He was married to Annette, who came from the southern part of the state I believe. Perly worked for the Fish and Game Department from 1927 to 1957 (Dec) as a C.O. and after that constructing dams in this area for the Department. West Branch Pond was not one of them. It was built after he died and his wife was at the dedication."

Although I have seen this Terrill Dam Fly, I still have not reeled in the information on how they can be purchased, but promise to keep trolling for this information for the next newsletter.

If any of the membership is knowledgeable about Perly and his ancestry we ask you to please share this with us for inclusion in the next newsletter. Thanks. ntt
