BENJAMIN G. TYRRELL LINE UNCOVERED

Benjamin G.<sup>1</sup> was b. 2 Sept 1815 in Milton, Litchfield county, CT, and died 24 Feb 1871 in Edenton, Clermont county, OH. He is a son of Benjamin<sup>6</sup> b. 1790 in Woodbury, Litchfield county, CT, died 1821 at age 31 in Concord twp., Miami county, OH, the 2nd son of Jonathan<sup>5</sup> and Mary Ann "Polly" (Thompson) Tyrrell of Woodbury, CT. Jonathan<sup>5</sup> is the son of Nathan<sup>4</sup>, not David.

From information taken in part from the Trumbull County, Ohio Bible & Family Records manuscript, this line's descent was incorrectly shown to be from David in DOR newsletters: Volume II, No. 2, June 1990 "David Tyrrell Family"; Volume II, No. 4,

Benjamin G.<sup>7</sup> Tyrrell

Winter 1990 "Memorials" for Eldon J. Sandell; and, Volume IV, No. 3, Fall 1992, p. 4-22, "David Tyrrel Family."

NATHAN<sup>4</sup> AND ELIZABETH (LYON)

This article will focus on the family of Nathan<sup>4</sup>, who m. Elizabeth Lyon. Nathan, was born and baptized in February 1736/37 in New Milford, Litchfield county, CT.

Apparently a career soldier, he started his service in the British military in 1756. He subsequently served in Capt. Josiah Lacey's Company, Col. Bradley's 5th Connecticut Regiment during the Revolution, from his enlistment 1 February 1777 until his death at Princetown, Mercer county, NJ on 30 June 1778. Records show him as sick at Redding Sept/Nov 1777, then sick at Burlington in Dec 1777, at Valley Forge May 1778, then sick at Princetown June 1778 where he died. His personal estate inventory filed 24 Feb 1784, consisted of four state notes worth 13 pounds 10 shillings. These were sold by the administrator as "four soldiers notes" for 11 pounds, 14 shillings and 6 pence.

In The History and Genealogy of the Families of Old Fairfield, pp. 950/51, is a genealogy of this family showing that Nathan<sup>4</sup> d. at Stratford in 1783, not 1778, probably based on the fact that administration of his estate by Josiah Lacey was requested by Nathan, Jr., as eldest son, 19 Sept 1783 (undoubtedly after pressure was brought to bear by creditors, one of whom was Josiah Lacey). One proof against the 1783 date and supporting the military record is found in the April 1782 distribution of the estate of Hezekiah<sup>4</sup> Turrel, brother of Nathan, which refers to "the heirs of Nathan Turrel, deceased." Hezekiah, who died about 1764 age c. 21, left his estate to his siblings.

The land records and wills of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Lyon, of North Fairfield, Fairfield county, CT, make it clear that their only daughter, Elizabeth, married Nathan Turrell. On 12 March 1761, recorded 17 Feb 1787, Nathan Lyon deeds for love and good will to "my daughter Elizabeth Turrell ye wife of Nathan Turrell" one acre of land in Stratford near Tattacock Brook.

Nathaniel Lyon in his will written 17 February 1761, proved 7 July 1773, leaves, to his daughter Elizabeth Turel, the wife of Nathan Turel, "one dwelling house which they now live in standing on one acre of land which I gave to her and her heirs, also I give her all the moveable in the house which I bought for them, also I will and bequeath to my said daughter Turel and her children a certain parcel of land lying by West Meadow Brook being eight acres." Also to Nathan Turel, Jr., son of Elizabeth Turel, his gun.

Settlement of Nathaniel Lyon's estate was made 9 August 1773. It mentions Elizabeth Turrel should have the use of the willed 9 acres during her natural life and then it is to go her children "lawfully begotten." The land is described as "bounded southerly on Abel Hall's land, easterly by Abel or Aaron Hall's land, bounded northerly on Hall's and Ephraim Treadwell's land and westerly on a line drawn from a certain rock in ye northwest corner" [there follows a very long description of this line, much of it illegible, but it does mention West Meadow Brook].

Elizabeth Lyon of Stratford, as Nathaniel's widow, in her will written 31 July 1773 names her grandson Nathan Turrell, Jr., granddaughters Anna and Elizabeth Turrell and her daughter, Elizabeth. Further she wills that at the decease of her daughter, Elizabeth, the things she left to her be equally divided among her daughter's children. Son Zachariah Lyon named executor. Her will was recorded and amended 14 June 1799 by Zachariah who "refused to cause will to be proved & refused to be executor thereof."

On 29 March 1788, Jonathan Turrell of Weston, Fairfield county, CT sold to Aaron Hall, one-seventh part of twelve acres of land in Weston at a place called Tattacock, bounded south and east on said Hall's own land, north partly on Hall's own land and partly on Zachariah Lyon's land, west on Zachariah Lyon's land. Recorded 19 June 1788. This gives us the clue that this inherited land was divided seven ways.

One part was sold on 6 February 1787, by Lockwood and Elizabeth Winton of Newtown, husband and wife, to Nathan Turrell of Stratford as their right "in two certain pieces of land in said Stratford at a place called North Fairfield which land formerly belonged to Nathan Turrell late of said Stratford, deceased, and now said divided between the heirs of ye said Nathan Turrell. The first piece contains eleven acres bounded south & east on Aaron Hall land, west on Zachariah Lyon's land & north part on said Halls land & part on said Lyons land, the other piece containing about one acre & is bounded south on highway east & north on said Halls land & west on a brook." Elizabeth was the only one to say the land had formerly belonged to her father, not her mother. This may just be an error as the deed was drawn in Newtown by a clerk unfamiliar with the specifics, land usually being in the husband's, not the wife's, name as it was in this instance.

WESTON TOWNSHIP ESTABLISHED IN 1787 FROM FAIRFIELD

On 16 Feb 1787, Nathaniel Turrell of Stratford sold to Nathan Turrell of Stratford, his interest in two pieces of land lately belonging to "my dear mother Elizabeth Turrell." The description of the land is the same.

On 5 February 1795, Ephraim Turrell of Stratford sold to Aaron Hall of Weston the right and title "I have or ought to have in a certain piece of land lying in the township of Weston, parish of North Fairfield, near the dwelling house of Aaron Hall, it being the piece of land that formerly belonged to my mother Elizabeth Turrell, deceased." Again, the description of the land is the same as the other deeds.

Reuben Turrell of Weston, sold to Aaron Hall on 8 October 1796, the right and title he has in a piece of land that "fell to me and the others of my brothers & sisters from our mother's estate who is deceased and the same was not ever divided, the whole piece of land contains about eight or ten acres", again the same description. Since Reuben, the youngest child born c. 1772, was the last to sell to Aaron Hall, it is curious that he says the land was not ever divided. This must mean that each 1/7th was not identified per se, but that the right was sold without actual division.

Earlier, on 27 February 1787, Nathan Turell of Stratford sold to Aaron Hall "four-sevenths parts" of two parcels at a place called Tattacock, again the same description except it included "my dwelling house standing on the same." Since Nathan's brother Nathaniel, and his sister, Elizabeth Winton, sold Nathan their shares, and Nathan had a share, where did the fourth share come from? Jacobus instructs us that a somewhat general practice in early colonial times in New England was for the eldest son to receive a double portion. In this instance, Nathan, Jr., being the eldest son, must have received a double portion and thus his 2/7ths makes the total 4/7ths. Add to this the share each for Jonathan, Ephraim and Reuben, and you account for the full seven parts.

NATHAN IN GAOL

The date of birth for Nathan, Jr.<sup>5</sup> is based on the ASSUMPTION that this Nathan, as eldest son, is the Nathan in gaol, mentioned in previous articles in DOR.

Following are the children of Nathan<sup>4</sup> and Elizabeth (Lyon) Tyrrell:

- 1) Nathan, Jr.<sup>5</sup> b.c. 1759/60
- 2) Elizabeth, bp. Huntington Episcopal Church 30 May 1762, m. Lockwood Winton
- 3) Nathaniel Lyon bp. Huntington Episcopal Church 2 Sept 1764
- 4) Jonathan b. 1766, grandfather of Benjamin G. pictured in this article.
- 5) Anna b.c. 1768, mentioned in her grandmother Lyon's will. Must have d. without heirs before the division.
- 6) Ephraim b. 1769, pb. m. Deborah Rowell at Easton Church Sept. 1790, and d. at Trumbull 3 Jan 183[-] ae. 63 (g.s.)
- 7) Reuben b. 1772/73.

[Although Jacobus wrote variously of this family throughout his works from 1932 to 1942, he apparently didn't get the land records pieced together.] ntt

HARRIETT OF MIDDLEBURY

The following was found in the 5 February 1903 issue of The Seymour Record newspaper, under the Middlebury, CT items:

"Mrs. Harriet L. Tyrrell, widow of Lewis Tyrrell, who died in Waterbury Monday, aged 69 years, was born in Middlebury, and was a descendant of one of the first settlers of New Haven colony. Her husband, Lewis Tyrrell, was one of the most prominent residents of Middlebury. The deceased removed to Waterbury sixteen years ago. She leaves two sons, Henry W. Tyrrell and E. L. Tyrrell. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. The interment will be in Middlebury."

TERRILL TALK

A sincere thanks to DOR member EUGENE F. THROOP for loaning his extensive filing card collection on the Terrill family containing his compiled data. He also provided more current newspaper obituaries of the family name from the Pennsylvania area. Thanks, Eugene, for sharing!

It is always a pleasure to receive a copy of a family history, made as a lasting and treasured record. DENCY J. TERRILL shared with us her 1994 booklet entitled "Two Ancestral Lines of Walter Ivan Terrill". Her father, WALTER<sup>1</sup>, is DOR's 100th member and traces to Roger<sup>1</sup> through Adelbert<sup>1</sup>, David Covey<sup>1</sup>, Josiah<sup>1</sup>, Josiah<sup>2</sup>, Lewis<sup>4</sup>, Josiah<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>. She also recorded her research on the paternal ancestors of Walter's mother, DENCY JANE RUGG.

DONNA TERRILL NORTHUIS reports that she has compiled over 300 pages of manuscript on her line and hopes to have it in print this year. Among other things, her research will correct some "serious errors" in her 6th and 7th generations. She also shared research on CHAUNCY TURRELL, b. NY 1813, an early settler of Leroy twp., Ingham co., MI.

Another Michigan connection has been uncovered, tracing back to John's<sup>2</sup> youngest son, Gamaliel<sup>3</sup>. New member ALICE KROGMAN COOK is documenting her line through George Thompson<sup>1</sup> and Dr. Charles<sup>1</sup> Terrill of Michigan. Ironically, the mother of Dr. Charles is Electa Cook! More on these Michigan lines in forthcoming newsletters. ntt

Hannah was bp. 8 Sept 1689. On 6 Mar 1723/4 she m. Richard Burton. Before marriage she had a natural child by Joseph Pritchard, b. in May 1718. Her sister, Sarah, b.ca. 1685/6, bp. ca. Jan 1685/6; m1) 4 Nov 1708, John Hubbard; and m. 2) 4 Dec 1722, Lewis Wilkinson. Evidently Hannah and Sarah set up housekeeping together and when Sarah remarried and Hannah was about to marry, Hannah withdrew from the arrangement and sold her share to Sarah's husband, Lewis Wilkinson, who was a clothier. Such female partnership in property in colonial times was definitely the exception. ntt

BLANCHE SPEARS TRUSSELL

Blanche was born just two years before the turn of the century. She experienced seeing her grandmother living in a log cabin who earlier in her life had to cope with Indians who came begging for food while her husband was away fighting in the Civil War.

The family moved to a farm on the outskirts of Albia where she attended a country school until going to the schools in town--a trek of two to three miles. On muddy days in the spring they were made to wear overshoes, which they would hide in the fence lines as they didn't want to be known as clodhopper farmers. Along the way they often encountered hobos as they crossed the railroad tracks, and her oldest sister, Sylvia, would pull out her long hat pin to be used if any of them dared to approach. When Sylvia became a teacher, Blanche would sometimes serve as her substitute. She said the boys smelled so bad that she decided she would not be a teacher.

She married Lewis A. Trussell 18 March 1918, and they farmed until moving to Des Moines where I [Robert] was born, at home, in 1920.

Then Bill was born in 1924. In 1925 they moved back to Albia, where Joan was born in 1929.

In the 1930's we experienced the great depression. Jobs were hard to come by and wages were low. There were years of large vegetable gardens and preserving food by canning, drying, and even burying root vegetables in a hole in the garden to be dug up as needed in the winter. Blanche took in washing, baked pies and cakes to sell, and helped Lewis in his business of produce buying. No matter what the pinch, the tithe to the church came first, and we always attended church, even in overalls if necessary.

People often asked me if she was my sister as she did look so vital. The 40's found Blanche seeing her oldest go into the Armed Services and then disaster rocked the family when Bill was killed in an accident. She took it very hard and aged almost overnight and insisted on moving back to Des Moines, where she wanted to find a job which made her tired so she could sleep. She worked for Cowles Publishing as a corresponding secretary and began attending the Gatchel Methodist Church.

Blanche did not wish to be the center of attention but worked diligently and quietly wherever she could be of help. She was loved by her family and friends. We will miss her dearly.

Burial was in Oak View Cemetery in Albia, Monroe county, Iowa.

TERRELL - LEROY

A fine presentation of Volume 2, has been issued for LEROY, of the TERRELL LEROY LEAR WARD and RELATED FAMILIES GENEALOGY, compiled by Margaret Ellen Lear Terrell and Donald Leon Terrell, 267 pages. The book covers the genealogy of Clara Genevieve Leroy Terrell (1900-1974) thru generations 12-13. Numerous picture and letter insertions, Table of Contents, Bibliography and Index. Photocopy permission. For more information contact the compilers at 505 Hector Street, Ithaca, NY 14850.
