Note.

These five volumes of the Records of the First Congregational Church of Milford were brought to the Connecticut State Library January 30, 1930 by David A. Clarke, 5th, for his father, David L. Clarke, Clerk of the Church. These records begin in 1639 and come down to 1926.

While every effort has been made according to the light of each decade to take proper care of these records, it was not until recent years that they had the protection of any kind of a safe. When they came into the custody of Mr. Clarke, he placed them in his safe located in his home. It was this safe which, when the Clarke home burned in 1922, preserved these invaluable records dealing with the religious life of Milford from 1639. While some of the pages were badly charred, no part of the records were lost.

Mr. Clarke also brought in for deposit the records of the Plymouth Congregational Church in Milford, a daughter of the First Church, two volumes covering the period from 1855-1898. (There is another volume of the Plymouth Records from 1898 to 1926, at which time Plymouth Church became reunited with the First Church under the name of The Church of Christ Congregational-its present name.) This third volume of Plymouth Records will be deposited in the State Library a little later.

THE FIRST COVENANT OF THE CHURCH

Since it hath pleased ye Lord of his infinite goodness and free grace to call us (a company of poor miserable wretches) out of ye world unto fellowship with himselfe in Jesus Christ, and to bestow himself upon us by an everlasting covenant of his free grace sealed in ye blood of Jesus Christ, to be our God, and to make and avouch us to be his people, and hath undertaken to circumcise our hearts, that we may love ye Lord our God, and fearé him, and walk in his wayes: we, therefore, do, this day, avouch ye Lord to be our God, even Jehovah, the only true God, the Almighty maker of heaven and earth, the God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ; and wee do this day enter into a holy covenant with ye Lord, and one with another, through ye grace and help of Christ strengthening us (without whom we can do nothing), to deny ourselves and all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and all corruptions and pollutions, wherein any sort wee have walked. And do give up ourselves wholly to ye Lord Jesus Christ, to be taught and governed by him in all relations, conditions and conversations in this world; avouching him to be our only prophet and teacher, our only Priest and Propitiation, our only King and Lawgiver. And we do further bind

On the old parchment cover in which this book was originally bound was the date, An: 1608. ^(figure & a masonic)

The book was probably brought from England by Mr. Prudden - in the year 1637.

It had been used for an account book before it was fitted to the present use - a number of leaves having been cut from the beginning as appeared before it was rebound -

Fac simile of figures on old cover.

An: 1608.

102. * It is believed that this record at this point is likely to do injustice to the memory of John Puddens; inasmuch as it seems to indicate that he was excommunicated from the church. This mistake seems likely to be perpetuated because in the copy of this record, now in the Town Clerk's Office at Weymouth, something is indicated while proofs of error are lacking. Therefore this note is placed here to call attention to the brackets and asterisks, which examination will show in the original indicating that the excommunicated one was a person whose name is on a line below, namely Mary Atkins, and not John Puddens.

It may be added that the only John Puddens to whom this could refer, was the Rev. John who shortly before this date was a pastor at Jamaica L. I. and about this time called to the church in New N. J. and subsequently preaching again at Jamaica. He was for many years, pastor of the church in Newark, N. J. a man, against whom no scandal was ever urged. (See middle of opposite page)
