

Land West, and the Common East.

John another parcel lying in the West field containing Six acres of measured Land and lyeth for one acre and one half bee it more or less, bounded with Charles Deal East, and a high way North and South and West Common.

Joseph Peck hath given him by the Town one Parcel of Land lying at the Point containing Eleven Acres it is to bear Hoes for two and three Rods and to pay Rates for two bounded with his own Land West, and East Swamps South and Nathaniel Briscoe Land North, and the Common East. Note that this to goe two high ways through it two Rod wide.

Widdow Northrupp hath given her by the Town two Acres of Land at Point seized for one bounded with her own Land East, and North a high way South and John Beard West.

Leut Fowler hath taken up as a part of his Division ten Acres of Land and to Equall it to other Land ten acres in all twenty Acres bee it more or less, bounded with Common East, West, North, and South. Note that this to pay Rates for Six acres three Rods and fourteen pole, this lyeth against Addin plains.

James Prime hath taken up the Remainder of his halfe Division being two Acres and three Rods, now lying to a parcel of Land he had formerly against Addin plains in all Seven Acres and an halfe bounded with the Common East, and with the Common West, North and South in length fifty Rod, and in breadth twenty four Rod. Note a high way goeth through it all along by the Common one Rod and an halfe wide (it is to pay Rates for Six acres and one Rod).

William Tyler hath given him by the Town a parcel of Land and Swamp lying in the West field containing two Acres and to Equall it to other Lands five Acres in all Seven Acres, bee it more or less, being bounded with Deacon Clark's Land East, Mr. Richard Bryan South, a high way West, and North. Note that this wood is to be Common for any person as long as any wood doth.

Thomas Whooler hath the Grant to take up a piece of Land on the Indian Side by his middow, which parcel contains halfe an acre and to Equall it to other Land one acre in all one acre and halfe bee it more or less, being bounded with Benjamin Smith his Land North, and West the Swamp bounding out the Spring of water and comfortable passage to come at it, and it is bounded with his own Middow East, and South. Note that this Land he is to have for four Rod that was formerly taken up from his Lot in the Point, for a high way at End of his land at the breadth of his Lot. (Note, this is to be Common free, and Rate free).

John Baldwin Sen^r hath taken up the Remainder of his Division near to Straford River Against Oronge, being ten Acres and to Equall it to other Land five acres in all fifteen Acres bee it more or less, bounded with the Common North, West, and East, and Nathaniel Briscoe South. (Note that this is to pay Rates but for Six acres three Rods and twenty Six pole).

Nathaniel Briscoe hath for his halfe Division nine Acres and one Rod and to Equall it to other Land four acres one half and twenty pole in all thirteen Acres and halfe and twenty pole, bee it more or less, lying also against Oronge bounded with John Baldwin Sen^r his Land North, and with Common East, West, and South. Note this is to pay Rates but for Six acres and fourteen pole.

tion of Land Seven five acres in all
one hundred and
and in the year
m^e East Land
Robert Roats Land

tion Seven Acres
and three Rods,
half bounded with the South and the and twenty four

tion five acres
in the year
having m^e m^e
Barred Land South
th

Acres and to Equal five Acres, and to be it more or less,
the frontiers all,
and a high way

Division five acres
it more or less, lying at Sixty Rods long
the front to make the Comon South

on the town plaine
bounded with a high highway Land East

Acres, and to Equal
it more or less, lying
length Seventy Rods
half in breadth in East Side, of Equal
d Thomas Andrews
with m^e Roats Land and Jonathan Low

and to Equal it to
ing on the town plaine
a way South, and North Land West,

William Tyler hath for his Second half Division of Land five acres and to Equal it to other Land two acres in all Seven Acres be it more or less, lying on the town plaine by Stratford River against the old ononago, being bounded with the Comon Land South, and Stratford River West, Thomas Welch his half Division North, and Nathaniel Briscoe to Comon Land East. Next, there is a high way to goe through it to Thomas Welch's Lot, and the other Lot lying on the West of the abovesaid Nathaniel Briscoe's Lot.

Josiah Tibbals, hath for his first half Division five acres and to Equal it to other Land four acres in all nine acres lying in the ferry Corner, in length ninety Rods, and in breadth Sixteen Rods, being bounded with a high way East, John Rogers South, the Comon West, and Joseph Gurnsey North.

Daniel Baldwin hath for his half Division five acres lying in the ferry Corner, and to Equal it to other Land two acres and an half in length one hundred and Sixty Rods Long, in width, Seven Acres and an half, being bounded with the Comon East, Cap^t Bowd's Land South, a high way west, Sometime Thomas Hinds, now Nicholas Camps Land North.

Roger Newton, hath for his first half Division five acres, and to Equal it to other Land two acres one Rod and five Rods in all Seven Acres and five Rods lying on the town plaine, being fifty three Rods long, and twenty five Rods wide being bounded with Benjamin Smith North, John Plumb South, Henry Allen East, and a high way west.

Daniel Baldwin hath for his first half Division five acres, and to Equal it to other Land four acres, and one half in all nine acres and an half, lying at wigwam Swamp, bounded with a high way East, with the Comon or Thomas Andrews West with William Tyler Land, and John Smith his Land South and Joseph Beck north, being one hundred and twenty Rods long, and twelve Rods wide at the front, and fourteen in the Rear, Leut. Ellis, hath for his first half Division of Land Seven acres of Land lying in Redbush plaine by the west side of the path, being in length Seventy Rods, and in breadth Eighteen Rods, being bounded with the high way East, Cap^t William Fowler Land South, and m^e Whitmans South, and m^e East, Ephraim Whidlers or Comon Land West, and Thomas Andrews Land North and to Equal it to to other Land Six acres, formerly taken up lying in his field so called.

Jonathan Fowler hath for his first half Division of Land five acres, and to Equal it to other Land one acre in all Six acres lying near Platts Lot, in length one hundred and Sixty Rods Long, and six rods and five foot in breadth, bounded with Joseph Whetser East, the Comon South, Robert Plumb West, and William Whetser, m^e John Baldwin North.

Thomas Andrews, hath for his first half Division Seven Acres and a half, and to Equal it to other Land Seven Acres and one Rodde in all fourteen acres, and three Rods lying on Redbush plaine, being bounded with a high way of 5 Rods wide East, with m^e Ellis's Land South, other Lot's West, and the Comon West, being in length, Seventy Rods, and in breadth thirty four Rods.

Serg^t Thomas Clarke, hath for his Second half Division four acres lying at the oyster meadow plaine, in length Eighty Rods, in breadth twenty Rods being bounded with John Baldwin's West, high way East, North, and South.