

[illegible]

might be used to Back of Land which is given to David Torrell by Will Lying at the Southwesterly end of the farm to the Dwelling house to the Grist mill with the appurtenances thereto belonging with the privilege of a stream and two acres of Land lying opposite to the mill on the westerly side of the same running from the mill to the highway between of Hawford & Stratford beginning on the Northwesterly side where the garden some more land running southerly till it makes two acres as a house and one acre opposite to the mill on the easterly side of the same running eastward to Edward Blackman's Land 1900-0-0

to the saw mill with the appurtenances thereto belonging & closed to go only when there is water enough for both mills with liberty of drawing logs carting & through the land on each side mill which is reserved for the use of and prized with the grist mill with liberty to rebuild from time to time and to maintain a small part of the dam to be kept in repair

130-0-0 to the Land on the Northwesterly side of the Land prized with the grist mill being about 8 acres and 29 paces to the Remainder of the Land lying on the Southwesterly side of the Land prized with the grist mill being about 24 acres and 19 paces

192-0-0

968-0-0

2815-0-0

The above and foregoing Inventory was Completed August 17th 1759 by us

Isaac Permitt
Solomon Burton

apprisors sworn as of Law Direct

Movables - 593 7 6