1 month
Held free

In August 1779 I was called out in the Militia one month and was stationed at Stratford Conn. when I served the month, which was the last of my service. Jonathan Curtin was Captain.

During my service I was in a barracks at Fort Mifflin Bay 3 or 4 miles from New York, in another at Hearleam and in another at White Plains - I was born in Watubury and have always lived in the same town and suppose my birth is recorded on the Town Record.
