

Roger-Brill hath five Acres thers Rooder and twenty pees of it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, Phillips Hatly on the north with other lotte to the South East, and Sergeant Campi to the South,

Nicholas Camp hath Six acres one Rood and twenty poles or more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, with other Lots to the East with Roger Torrette to the North with John Howlers to the South,

John Fowler hath one acre a half and twenty Poles to it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, with Sergeant Camps to the North, with other Lots to the East and with Joseph Baldwins on the South:

Joseph Baldwin hath two Acres one Rood and twenty Poles, be it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, with John Howlers to the north, with other lots to the East, and with Thomas Ribbals to the South.
Home Lots: 1646

Thomas Tibbatts hath one Acre, a half and twenty pole, be it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, with Joseph Baldwin to the North, with other Lots to the East, and with Martha Bevil.

Martha Beard widow hath four Acres and one Rood to it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the west, and South, with other Letts to the East and with Thomas Tibbatts to the North:

George Hubbert, hath four Acres and a halfe be it more or less, being bound with a high way to the East, and South, with the Common to the west, and George Clarke Port on the North.

George Clarke Sen^r hath four Acres and a halfe or it more or less being bounded with a high way to the East with George Hubbards on the South with the Common on the West, and with the Sen^r Hubbards on the North.

Andrew Benton hath three Acres be it more or less, being bounded with a high way on the East, with George Clark on the South, with the Common on the west, and with Edward Rigge on the North:

Edward Riggs hath three Acres be it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the East, Andrew Binton to the South the Common on the West, and with Nathaniel Briscoes to the North.

Nathaniell Briscoe hath three Acres be it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the East, and North, with the Common to the west, and with Edward Riggs on the South.

John Browne hath three Acres be it more or less, being bounded with a high way to the East, and South, with the Common to the west and with William Brooks on the North;

William Brooks hath three Acres by it more or less, being bounded with the high way to the East, with John Browns on the South, with the Common on the west, and with Thomas Baylys on the North:

Thomas Bayly hath three Farms - Letts, 1646:
A high way to the East, with William Brooks to the East, & to the Common on the west, and with John Brooks to the East, & to the then on the west, and with John Smith on the South with the star Smith hath bought of William Snow three acres and the town ath given him one best in all four best, so it most for the being bound at a high way to the D. N. with N.