Sir
Herewith I send you the papers of Eunice Tyndal for pension under the act of 7th July 1838
Your Early attention to the matter will be a favor

The leaf from the family Bible being already lost I thought it as well to give you the original the writing on which is not very legible, but as it reciprocates it is as follows

My Bible the property of Sam^l
Not of David Long price four dollars
Born on the 22nd day of February in the year of our Lord 1758 and was married on the 22nd day of January 1782 Consort was Born on the 8th day of April 1762
first Child Rachel was born May the 14th 1784
2nd Child Rebecca was born June 4th 1786
3rd Child ^{Ezra} was born July 16th 1788
4th Child Samuel was born July 17th 1790

The difficulty in accurately deciphering the writing is one reason for attaching the original - The residue of the name after Sam^l appearing to have been torn off of the first line is also another reason
If any thing further is to be done, please advise me
as soon as possible

Respectfully Yours

Dear Sir:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, W. 19460, that Samuel Tyrel was born February 22, 1758 in Woburn, Connecticut.

While residing in New Perth (which was later Salem), Washington County, New York, he served as a substitute for his brother, William, one month from in June, 1776, in Captain McGracken's Company, Colonel Gansevoort's New York Regiment.

In 1777 he moved to Hebron, Washington County, New York, and enlisted and served with the New York Troops as follows- from in June 1777, one month in Captain John Hamilton's Company, Colonel Williams' Regiment, and was in the retreat from Ticonderoga; from August 1, 1777, three months in Captain Elijah Herrick's Company, Colonel Morris Graham's Regiment and was in the battle of Stillwater; in 1778 out in scouting tours and alarms in Captain Hamilton's Company, in all six months; from April 1, 1779, nine months as sergeant in Captain Levi Stockwell's Company; in 1781 out in scouting tours and alarms in Captain Wilson's Company, Colonel Webster's Regiment, in all about six months.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 28, 1832, at which time he was living in Hebron, New York.

He died in said Hebron, December 12, 1834.

The soldier married, January 22, 1782 in Williamstown, in the "Bay State", Eunice, her maiden name is not given, she was born April 6, 1782, place not stated.

The following appears on the family record-

1st child Rachel	born May	14, 1784
2nd child Rebecca	" June	- 1786
3rd child Ezra	" July	16, 1788
4th child Samuel	" July	17, 1790.

Very truly yours
